

COLORADO STATE PERSONNEL
WHISTLEBLOWER COMPLAINT FORM
(State Employee Protection Act, C.R.S. § 24-50.5-101 et seq.)

The State Employee Protection Act (Whistleblower) prohibits discipline or penalty against a state employee in retaliation for the employee's disclosure of state agency actions that violate the public interest. An employee in the state personnel system must file a whistleblower complaint within 30 days of the discipline or penalty if the employee can demonstrate reasonable communication of the alleged violation to the employee's supervisor, appointing authority, or member of the General Assembly. If your appeal alleges a violation of the State Employee Protection Act (Whistleblower), you must file a written complaint with the Board at 633 17th Street, Suite 1320, Denver, Colorado 80202-3604, which includes the following information.

1. A description of the disclosure of information (written provision of evidence to any person or testimony before the General Assembly) that led to the discipline or penalty, including the content of the information, the date of the disclosure, and the person/group to whom you made the disclosure. If the disclosure was in writing, please attach a copy.

2. A description of the reasonable communication of the alleged violation, including the content of that communication, the date of the communication, and the person to whom you made the communication. If the communication was in writing, please attach a copy.

3. A description of the discipline or penalty that allegedly violated the Whistleblower Act. If the action was in writing, please attach a copy.
